The petition dated 04 February 2022 was filed before the Court of Appeals against the Office of the Insurance Commissioner, Allied Care Experts Medical Center-Valenzuela, Allied Care Experts Medical Center- Pateros , Allied Care Experts Medical Center - Baypointe, Allied Care Experts Medical Center – Quezon City, Allied Care Experts (ACE) Medical Center- Baliwag and Asia Pacific Medical Center- Iloilo (Formerly Allied Care Experts Medical Center- Iloilo

Almost two years after APMC Iloilo received the resolution of the Insurance Commission on the request for investigation of Ferdinand Kionisala declaring that the benefits and privileges enjoyed by him or offered by any of the named respondents he impleaded on his complaint is not a pre-need contract, agreement, deed, nor plan contemplated under the law and that ACEMC – Cebu or any other respondent named on this matter are not engaged in pre-need business hence not required to secure a separate license for such before the insurance Commission , he filed a Motion for Reconsideration dated 25 November 2020.

After the denial of the Motion for Reconsideration in a letter dated 29 November 2021 where the IC declared that the Complainant’s Motion for Reconsideration is bereft of any novel compelling arguments or new pieces of evidence to consider in order to depart from its previous ruling, Ferdinand Kionisala filed a special civil action for Certiorari under Rule 65 before the Court of Appeals alleging that the Insurance Commission acted with grave abuse of discretion amounting to lack or excess of jurisdiction when it found that the contracts sold or offered for sale to the public are not pre-need contracts or are not processing pre-need plans and when it ignored the evident fact that the benefit and privileges are the cause or consideration of the contracts between private respondents and the members of the general public. Mr. Kionisala prayed that the Court of Appeals set aside the letter dated December 11, 2018 and letter dated November 29 2021, be nullified and set aside and that the Insurance Commission be ordered to take appropriate action(s) against the private respondents for violating the Pre-Need Code of the Philippines.

APMC Iloilo is awaiting whether or not CA will give due course to the appeal.
